A Look at Tonight's Game

Head Coach Al Caniglia and his herd of Nebraska at Omaha Mavericks stampede into Lewis Field Stadium tonight carrying a 6-1 record overall and a 2-1 mark in Great Plains Athletic Conference action.

UNO is led by running back Charles McWhorter. Before last week, McWhorter was second in the nation in scoring with 13 touchdowns for 78 points.

In conference, McWhorter and FHS' Steve Crosby are carrying on a duel for the top rusher. As of last week, Crosby was first in rushing with a 119.8 average and McWhorter second with 98.5 yards per game. In all-purpose, the two were again one-two with Crosby averaging 188.7 yards per contest and McWhorter 146.5. In tandem offense, McWhorter held the lead over Crosby 139.0 to 131.8.

Frank Golwitzer, the punter from UNO, stood third in the conference with 39.7 yards per kick. Tiger punter Max Evans ranked second with 41.3 yards.

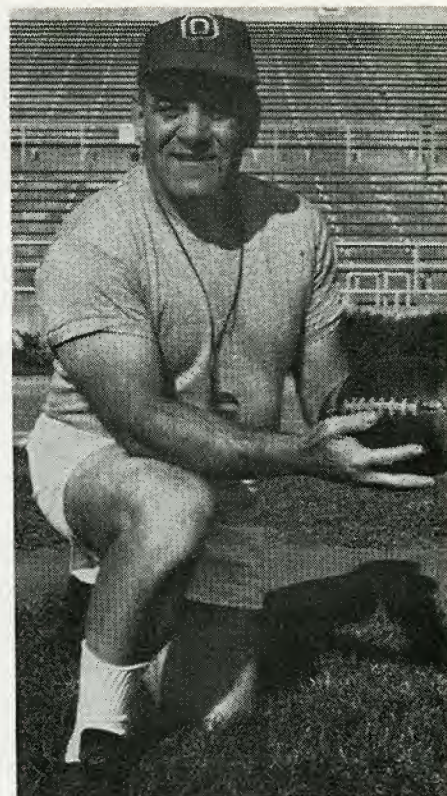

Deep back Willie Bob Johnson was tied for the lead in interceptions with four while FHS' deep back Jonathan Douglas was tied for third with three. In punt returns, Douglas held a small edge over Johnson, averaging 8.7 yards per return, while Johnson had a 7.7 yard norm.

Besides McWhorter, the Mavericks have fullback Bill Walker in their backfield. Walker has scored six TD's and rushed for 304 yards. Fred Tichauer gives the Mavericks all the kicking power they need. Tichauer has 20 extra points and five field goals to his credit.

On defense, UNO is topped by linebacker Ray Brust who has made 55 total tackles this year. Middle linebacker Scott Mitchell is second with 55 assists and 11 unassisted stops. Defensive linemen Jessie Kendle and Bill Kozel have been credited with 52 and 42 tackles respectively.

The offensive line is led by center Jim Kros. Mike Giancaspro, a candidate for post season honors, and Ed Edwards flank Kros at the guard position.

Last season the Mavericks took a 27-21 win from the Tigers. The series between the two stands at 11-3-1 in favor of UNO.

Head Coach

Even the toughest need protection. Shoulder pads, hip pads, helmet—with these, a player can give the game all he's got without fear of injury.

Life is much the same. Good health is important, but to get the most out of life, you need protection, too. That's where Living Insurance comes in. It can give you the security of knowing that your family will be protected, if you die. And, it can provide a reserve of funds for emergencies, education, retirement. To find out more about Living Insurance, call you Man from Equitable, today.

Seniors Make Last Home Stand

John Woodworth

J. D. Armstrong

Ken Zeigler

Eight Fort Hays State seniors will be making their last home appearance as a Tiger tonight against the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

J. D. Armstrong, the starting middle linebacker, has been involved in 96 tackles this season to lead the Bengals in this category. He has also intercepted one pass.

Jim Bicknell has been a starter for three years for the Tigers at his tackle position. He has made six tackles while working with the specialty teams this season.

Bruce Bruce, starting defensive tackle, has been an anchor of the Bengal front four, making 24 stops in contests this year.

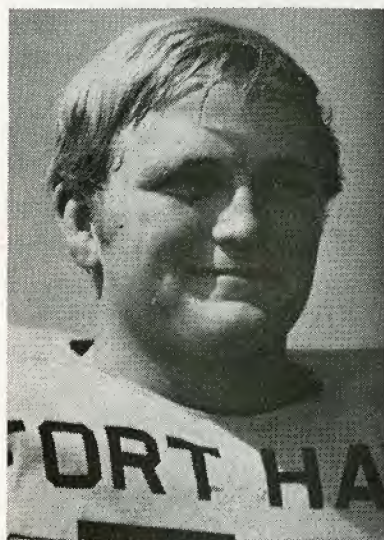

Rick Doran, also a Tiger wrestler, has held down the starting tackle position since earning it at the beginning of the year. He, along with Bicknell, have cleared the way for the Tiger runners.

Max Evans has started at the slotback spot for two years. Besides hauling in 15 passes for 162 yards and rushing for 33 yards in 16 attempts, Evans handles the Tiger punting chores with an average of 40.8 yards per kick.

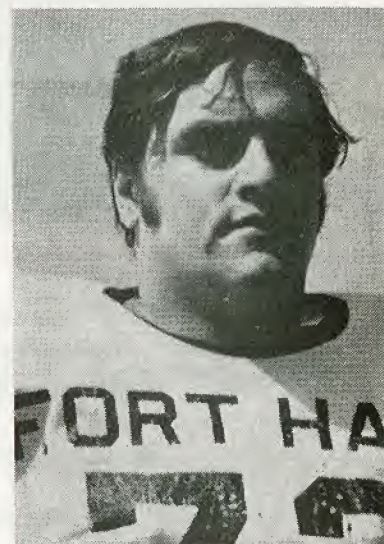

Mike Sobba is the other toe of the Black and Gold. He has converted on 12 of 13 extra points and has hit on 37 of 38 over the last two years.

John Woodworth has rewritten all the Tiger pass receiving marks. He has grabbed 46 passes for 622 yards and five touchdowns this season.

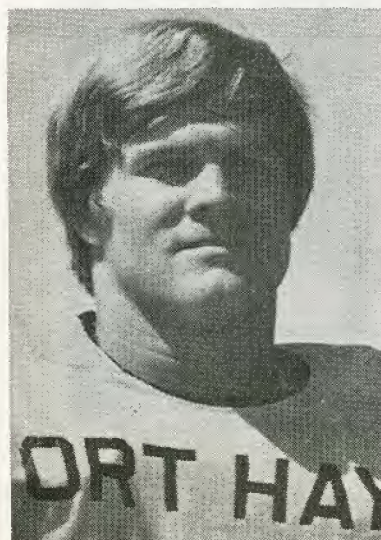

Ken Zeigler was the Tigers' leading rusher of a year ago. This season he has spent most of the time clearing the way for tailback Steve Crosby. When running with the ball, Zeigler has picked up 215 yards in 69 attempts.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the NCAA

Laguna Colonnade Hardtop Coupe

The new 1973 Chevelle Laguna. Good news, Chevelle fans. Now you can move up to more car without leaving the make you love most. You can move up to the new 1973 Laguna.

Laguna is a new kind of Chevelle, the top of the line. It has a special front, a special rear and a special interior.

The distinctive front is made mostly of a material called urethane that resists dents and dings. Styled right into the front end is the new improved front bumper system that retracts on minor impact and helps cushion the shock.

Inside there are rich-looking fabrics, wood-grain vinyl accents, a soft-rim color-coordinated steering wheel, map pockets and other luxurious appointments.

Laguna, like other '73 Chevells, has the new Colonnade hardtop roof design, power flow-through ventilation, front disc brakes, and more rear seat leg room than ever before.

The 1973 Laguna. A new and better way to see the NCAA.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

Enjoy the game. And remember to buckle up on the way home.

Offensive Coach Ed McNeil

Ed McNeil earned his B.S. at Kansas State University in 1949 and his M.S. from the same institution in 1950. A four-year letterman at Kansas State, he was named Honorable Mention All-America as a tackle his senior year. McNeil earned his Ed.S. at Fort Hays State in 1967.

McNeil who doubles as head gymnastics coach and assistant professor of physical education, joined the Fort Hays staff in 1957 after stints as assistant coach at College of Emporia and the University of North Dakota. He starts his 16th year as the head offensive line coach and chief scout.

Born in Horton, Kansas, McNeil received his elementary education from Effingham Elementary School and later graduated from Atchison County High School.

The head gymnastics coach belongs to such professional organizations as: the Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, the College Gymnastics Assn., the NAIA and the American Football Coaches Assn. He is also a member of the United States Gymnastics Committee and is currently the vice-president of the NAIA Athletics Committee and will determine the qualifications for the award of the best small college gymnast in the country.

In his spare time during the summer months, McNeil likes to play golf and also do some fishing.

He and his wife, Mary, are living at 2929 Willow with their two children, Marchia, 21, and Glenn, 18.

This year four women's varsity sports have been added to the Fort Hays State athletic budget. Women's tennis, volleyball, basketball, and softball will be recognized as major sports and will have financial aid from the athletic department.

The first varsity sport of the season was tennis. The Tigerettes ended the season with three triangular wins and a fourth place finish in the Barton County Community Junior College Invitational Tournament.

Tigerette ace Chris Keller finished the season as the top swinger winning nine matches and losing one.

Volleyball begins its action today at Salina against Marymount College. The only home contest for the volleyball team will be on Dec. 1 against Kearney State.

Basketball doesn't open its season until Jan. 26, but the Tigerettes begin workouts on Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in Sheridan Coliseum. Any full-time woman student is invited to try out for the team at this time.

Youth is the key word in Fort Hays State basketball talk for this season as the Bengals return nine lettermen, five of whom were only freshmen last season. The only senior on the squad is Sedgwick guard Troy Rampy (pictured above) who returns after a fine year last season. Rampy came through as the floor leader in the second half of the campaign last season.

Leading the returning sophomores is Bouncing Barton Snow. Last season, Snow finished as the Bengals' second leading rebounder and tied for second in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference statistics.

Junior Doug Thurman and sophomores Brent Frack and Dave Wessling are waging a battle for the starting post position.

The guard position is where the biggest dogfight could be staged. Rampy along with returners Keith Harper and Chris Rorabaugh are being challenged by newcomers Cliff Haltom, a transfer from Colby Junior College; Steve Hennel, eligible second semester; Mike Mathes, a freshman from Grant, Neb.; Tim Rietzke, a junior from Kensington; and Gary Werling, a transfer from Hutchinson Juco.

If the Tigers can overcome the youth or use it to their advantage, the Black and Gold could challenge for the first Great Plains Athletic Conference basketball crown.

Next Action For The Bengals

Next week the Tigers travel to Pueblo, Colo. to meet the Indians from Southern Colorado State College in a 1:30 p.m. game at the District 60 Stadium.

Southern brings a 3-3 record overall and a 1-2 Great Plains Athletic Conference mark into Saturday's contest. Last week the Indians fell to the University of Nebraska at Omaha 14-3.

Before last week's action, SCSC stood fifth in the conference in total offense averaging 256.6 yards per outing. They were fifth in rushing and fourth in passing. On defense, the Tribe was sixth in total defense with a per game norm allowed of 324.4. SCSC was fifth against the rush and last against the pass.

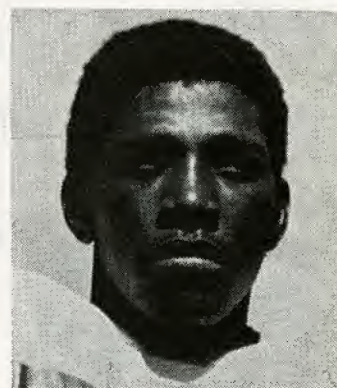

At the beginning of the season, Head Coach Joe Prater, in his 10th year as football coach at SCSC, stated, "Luck seems to be the big question when you talk about the football fortunes at SCSC this fall. The coaching staff is hoping that good luck will follow the bad and that the ball will bounce better in 1972."

SCSC's wide receiver Dan Connors ranked third in the GPAC in catching passes. He has hauled in 22 aerials for 375 yards.

Kicking specialist Del Bishop gives the Indians a threat from anywhere inside the 40-yard line. He has connected on 11 of 12 extra points and has booted three field goals.

In the defensive secondary, Bob Simmons leads the conference in stolen passes with four. He has returned the interceptions for 65 yards. Alan Webster gives SCSC a threat on kickoffs averaging 20.6 yards per return.

Last year the Tigers defeated the Indians in what is affectionately remembered as the "Mud Bowl". FHS slid past SCSC 10-7. FHS leads the series between the two schools 5-4.
